

GOVERNOR REQUESTS SANITARY DISTRICT TO REDUCE WATER FLOW

Hopes That This May Relieve Flood Conditions at Beardstown—River at That Place Exceeds the High Water Mark of 1844—Fight Still Being Made to Save West Levee

BULLETIN
BEARDSTOWN, Ill., April 10.—Armed guards patrolled the drainage district levee south of Beardstown tonight following threats to cut the levee to relieve flood conditions at the city.
The district levee is about one mile below the city. The guards were ordered out by C. C. Garm, commissioner of the district, who refused to disclose the source of the threats.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 10.—Governor Small today requested the Chicago sanitary district to reduce its flow into the canal channel as a means of relieving flood conditions at Beardstown.

The governor requested that the flow be reduced to the minimum for preserving proper sanitary conditions while the Illinois river is at flood stage.

More tents were shipped to Beardstown by Adjutant General Black in anticipation of a break in the city levee. The situation at Beardstown was relieved somewhat today when the tops of the levee at Havana broke. Heavy rains continued to fall today.

FIGHT ON NAVAL MEASURE BEGAN IN HOUSE MONDAY

Many Speeches Made for and Against Bill as Drafted

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 10.—The fight on the naval appropriation bill began in the house today with members insisting that it did and that it did not actually carry out the 5-6-3 ratio as fixed by the treaty.

Chairman Kelly of the subcommittee on appropriations which drafted the measure and others including Representative Mendell declared an enlisted force of 65,000 plus 2,000 apprentice seamen was adequate to maintain the navy in accordance with the arms conference rating. Others including Representative Padgett, ranking Democrat on the naval committee which in former times prepared the navy bills asserted that figures were so low as to destroy the efficiency of the American navy, and give it a standing the same as or lower than that of Japan.

There were seven speeches, three for and four against the measure. Representative Byrnes, ranking Democrat on the appropriations committee, supported the committee proposal joining Chairman Kelly and Mr. Mendell in its defense. On the other side the speaker with Mr. Padgett were representatives Tinkham, Husted and Vane, all Republican members of the appropriations committee who signed a minority report urging a force of 80,000 plus 6,000.

The name of the President was brought into the debate and there were many verbal clashes as a result. Mr. Mendell questioned the propriety of the inclusion in minority views of a statement that the president had urged 86,000 men or 10,000 less than the number requested by Secretary Denby. Mr. Husted said the president, according to the newspapers wanted that total and Mr. Vane said he knew of his personal knowledge that the statement was correct. Chairman Madden of the appropriations committee declared if congress upset the bill in its personal provision it would prove that the arms conference had failed to reduce naval expenditures as the people had hoped.

HEARING OF COAL STRIKE CONCLUDED FOR THE PRESENT

Last Day Devoted to Testimony of Labor Spokesmen

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 10.—Hearings of the house labor committee on the national coal strike were concluded today for a time at least, the last day being devoted to hearing testimony from labor spokesmen who desired charges concerning union contract breaking being a factor in the walkout. Chairman Nolan said there were no plans at present for a further investigation of the strike but the committee will meet Wednesday in executive session to take action on the Bland bill which would set up a federal coal commission to deal with such situations.

Witnesses today included Edgar Wallace, labor federation executive agent and a member of the miners' unions; John Hessler, president and William Mitch, secretary of the Indiana district of the United Mine Workers, and James Lord, vice president of the American Federation of Labor. Examination of the witnesses was enlivened by Representative Atkinson, of Missouri, who desired to show he said, "that it is the money question bothering the miners" rather than "questions of labor organization or conference with the operators."

Miners were getting up to last week 31 per cent more than they got during the peak of prices during the war, he declared in asking Mr. Wallace why aren't you willing to skin down a little now when farmers have lost fifty per cent of what they had then.

"Is there any reason why we should lose because farmers were not organized?" Mr. Wallace returned.

The entire operation of deflation as affecting wages and prices Mr. Wallace said, was artificially forced upon farmers and upon labor had produced in justice and should be resisted.

Alleged Misleading Report.
Mr. Hessler said that Phil H. Penna, operators' representative had given the committee an inaccurate and misleading statement to support charges that the union had violated generally its wage agreements. Mr. Penna said 300 strikes occurred in the state in mines during 1921, while the union records, Hessler said accounted for 34 per cent. The operation of a penalty clause in the wage contracts resulted in firing either operators or men responsible for an unjustified suspension of work, he explained and describing many instances of local disturbances said that some of them were produced because companies have supported contract breaking elements in the union in order to discredit our organization.

If operators records showed more strikes, he insisted, it was because their association "concealed the facts at the time in order to avoid the penalties." He also upheld the wage scale before the strike as reasonable as did Mr. Mitch.
"What do these mine superintendents earn?" Representative Burke, Republican, asked the latter.
"It's charged against the cost of coal isn't it, and they go on working while you boys are out."

"Yes the coal carries the charge," Mr. Mitch replied, "and I understand A. M. Ogile, who was before your committee draws $100,000 a year."

"What does Penna get?"
"I understand as secretary of the mine operators' association he draws down $25,000 a year," Mr. Mitch replied, while he also is in some mine operations I don't know about."

DAUGHERTY WILL TRY TO SETTLE BIG COAL STRIKE

Confers With Judge Anderson Relative to Dismissing Suits

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 10.—With the view of opening the way for possible settlement of the nationwide suspension of work by coal miners, Attorney General Daugherty arrived here today to announce and after a two hour conference with Federal Judge A. B. Anderson declared he did not know whether dismissal "was possible or practical at this time" of the indictments charging 225 coal operators, union leaders and others with conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law.

Mr. Daugherty discussed with the judge dismissal of the indictments which action it was said would remove the ground for the arrest of some operators to continue interstate wage negotiations with the union. Judge Anderson, who declined to discuss the conference was said to have refused to approve dismissal of the pending cases.

After the conference Mr. Daugherty made the first public comment on the purpose of his mission asserting he was seeking "certain information" bearing on the nationwide suspension of work because "he said, "the government is looking again with considerable interest into these indictments," he continued, referring to the Sherman anti-trust cases, charging conspiracy to monopolize the coal industry and control prices and "I am trying to get the facts that were testified to in connection with these cases."

The conspiracy, charged in the indictments, hanged largely around the wage conference of operators and miners in the central competitive field.

RUSSIA CLASHES WITH FRANCE AT GENOA MEETING

France Refuses to Discuss Disarmament at Conference

(By The Associated Press)
GENOA, April 10.—Russia, the status of which is one of the questions of supreme importance to be decided by the economic conference came to the forefront soon after the opening of that great assembly today. Speeches had been made by the presiding officer, Premier Facta of Italy, Mr. Barthou, representing France, Premier Lloyd George, of Great Britain; Dr. Vindt of Germany and spokesmen of Japan and Belgium of a conciliatory nature and voicing adherence to the Cannes resolutions upon which the present gathering is based.

Mr. Lloyd George had said that all the delegates met on a footing of equality, provided they accepted the conditions set forth, which briefly declared that countries must not repudiate their contracts, that they must not wage war on the institutions of another, that they must not engage in aggressive operations against others and that the people of one country should be entitled to justice in the courts of another.

George Chichester, soviet foreign minister in speaking for his delegation announced their adherence to the resolutions and then declared that Russia was ready to support any proposals that would avoid war or lighten the burden of disarmament.

Mr. Barthou immediately protested and declared with some heat that France would refuse to discuss disarmament at this conference.

Lloyd George hastened to intervene and in his contention that disarmament could not be taken up certainly not before a peace basis had been reached at Genoa he was supported by Signor Facta. Eventually the discussion on this point, ceased after M. Chichester said the Russian delegation would bow to the collective will of the conference. The clash between the Russian and French delegates disclosed the fact that disarmament is not on the agenda.

The keynote of Lloyd George's speech was peace and he made a powerful appeal to the delegates to work in union for the restoration of good relations and normal economic conditions through the world.

RAILROADS WOULD LIKE TO RETURN TO PRE WAR TIMES

Want Sufficient Latitude to Wage and Employment Conditions

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 10.—Efforts of the railroads in the present wage controversy are directed toward a return to the recognized practice of pre-war times when the management had sufficient latitude to meet wage and employment conditions in the different sections of the country. J. W. Higgins, representing the Western railroads contended in closing his testimony before the railroad labor board today. His testimony concerned chiefly unskilled labor in the maintenance of way division.

WANTED TO BE HERO BUT RUNS AGOUL LAW

CHICAGO, April 10.—Life seemed too prosaic for Neil Olson, 5, after he had read of the heroic deeds of a character in a dime novel who won a wife and undying fame by saving a train which desperate bandits were trying to wreck, so Neil went forth in search of glory. Instead of reaching the police station after disrupting the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad schedule near Hook, Ill., he was arrested.

Neil placed several ties on the tracks near Healy and with a red overcoat for a flag, waited for his opportunity. The Pioneer Limited, No. 1, came but the train stopped and the trainmen remove the ties. Three other trains came along, the milk train from Beloit, Wisconsin; a suburban express, No. 43, westbound for Deerfield, Ill., and No. 5, fast mail train, but each delayed its schedule and removed the ties from the tracks without aid from Neil.

Olson's activities came to an end when a neighbor who had watched his activities notified the police and he was arrested.

REVENUES OF PROHIBITION ACT WILL PAY COST MANY TIMES OVER

Commissioner Haynes Says That Revenues Will Far Exceed the $10,000,000 Appropriated for Law Enforcement—Criminal Information Filed Against Big Violators

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—Revenues from the national prohibition act should pay many times over for the $10,000,000 appropriated for the enforcement of the dry laws during the coming year, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes declared in an address tonight before the law enforcement meeting. "It would be interesting to the people to know," he said, "that if we were to collect the fines, penalties and special tax imposed upon violators of the law in the first six months of this administration they would more than pay two and one-half times the estimated cost of enforcing prohibition law for the next year. These enormous figures do not include nearly $3,000,000 in bonds being forfeited to the government or $2,000,000 that have been offered in compromise by 21 of the large violators of the law and do not include the $6,000,000 in differential or prohibitive tax that have been referred to previously."

Mr. Haynes declared that after 10 months of renewed effort to restrict road liquor into legitimate channels the result "is perhaps as near to accomplishment as possible."

Immediately preceding prohibition he stated, there was an annual consumption of about 130,000,000 gallons of American made whiskey while during 1920 approximately 12,500,000 gallons of whiskey was withdrawn from warehouses under permits and in 1921 withdrawals amounted to about 3,500,000 gallons.

On the basis of the last three or four months he reported with draws this year will amount to about 2,000,000 gallons, "which is perhaps only about 500,000 gallons in excess of normal medicinal requirements."

Of the 500 breweries manufacturing near beer at the beginning of this fiscal year, he declared 255 have been reported for violation of the prohibition act. 95 plants are under seizure by the government and offers in compromise as high as $96,000 have been received.

File Criminal Information.
"I have long been persuaded," he said, "that fines against large violators are but small deterrent forces so we are today citing all breweries found guilty of violation in the United States on criminal informations. We are not only revoking permits of the guilty but are also refusing to re-issue permits to persons who have violated the provisions of their permits and this has resulted in the closing down of about 50 near beer plants in recent months."

Asserting that there was a propaganda to create the impression that the prohibition law was non-operative, Mr. Haynes said: "It is significant that at the time when liquor is the most difficult to obtain in all our history; when drunkenness has decreased to a very appreciable degree; when convictions for violation of the law are becoming more numerous; that at such time the largest amount of space is given in some of our newspapers to articles most flimsy of fact, which set forth the idea that 'prohibition is a failure.'"

SAYS BILLS FOUND IN RIVER WERE STOLEN

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Solution of the mystery of the finding of the package of $5 treasury bills in the Potomac river near the bureau of engraving and printing was announced today by Chief Moran of the secret service who said that the bills were a part of a bundle of 1,000 sheets, each containing four $5 notes stolen from the bureau about a year ago. Clayton C. Dwyer, of Potomac, Va., a former clerk of the bureau, was said to have admitted burying a portion of the 1,000 sheets in the swampy land near the river and more bills were located there today.

Treasury officials declared that the finding of the $5 bills in the Potomac river had no connection with the re-organization of the bureau of engraving and printing.

(By The Associated Press)

According to high officials of the internal revenue department an agent has been assigned to investigate and report all information that he may collect. He has been instructed to attend the trial of Governor Small at Waukegan next week.

"I have instructed an agent to attend the trial when it is called on the chance that the state may have sufficient evidence to show that the federal income tax law has been violated," E. A. Alden, chief field deputy of the internal revenue department said.

George N. Murdock, special assistant United States attorney in charge of income tax cases refused to discuss what action was contemplated, but said an investigation would be made.

JOHN NOONAN DIES AT HOME LAST NIGHT

Well Known Citizen Passes Away After Long Illness—Had Been Resident of County for Many Years.

John Noonan died at his home 812 West North street at 12 o'clock midnight Monday after an illness of several months.

Decedent, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Jacksonville, lived nearly all his life in this vicinity. He was the son of the late Thomas Noonan and Bridget (Rogers) Noonan, who came from near Roscommon, Ireland in the year 1847. For a time the family resided in New Orleans, later removing near Merritt, Scott county, Illinois. Here on March 18, 1851, their son, John, was born. A few years subsequently Mr. Noonan's father bought a small farm adjoining Joy Prairie in Morgan county and cultivated it until March 1861, when he took charge of a larger place near Concord. Five years afterwards he bought a farm four miles west of Jacksonville.

Mr. Noonan was devotedly attached to his parents and lived at the old home while they survived. He received his education in the district schools of Sunnyside, Harmony and Joy Prairie, and completed a business course in Brown's Business College in Jacksonville. Due to his industry, prudent management and strong attachment to farming and stock raising, Mr. Noonan succeeded in acquiring a large tract of land adjoining the old homestead.

He was held in high esteem by all with whom he came in contact because of his upright manner of living, his fairness in business dealings and his uniform kindness and tolerance toward his fellow citizens regardless of race or creed in politics he was a Democrat. He never aspired to public office, though often prevailed upon by his friends to do so. Yet in his active years few men had more personal friends and acquaintances, regardless of party affiliations, than he among the citizens and public men of all sections of Morgan county, and he at all times manifested a keen and sympathetic interest in all matters looking to the welfare and good citizenship.

Mr. Noonan was a member of the Catholic church and a regular attendant at the Church of Our Savior. It was his good fortune to be personally acquainted with nearly all the pioneer members of the congregation. He was a personal friend of all the resident pastors of the parish from the time of its foundation and was generous in contributing to the maintenance of his church.

In January, 1911, he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret C. Dowd, and resided at 812 West North street, this city, from that time. He is survived by Mrs. Noonan and his daughter, Mary Margaret Noonan, one daughter, Agnes Isabel, dying in infancy. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Clayton C. Quast of the Illinois College Conservatory left this morning for Chicago. He will sing at Depauw University, Greencastle, Indiana, while he is away.

DR. WHEELER STANDS ON SENATE RECORD

DRY LEADER HEARD IN ADDRESS HERE MONDAY.

Told Why Organizations in Springfield are Fighting Him Bitterly—Scott McBride Anti-Saloon League Superintendent Strong for Wheeler.

"Come life or come death, come plenty or come poverty, come honor or come disaster, I am determined to tread in the rugged path of truth and to assist humanity in bearing the heavy and murderous cross of sorrow and woe.

"With my feet firmly planted on the prairie grass of my native State; with my eyes fixed on the tomb of the great American; with my heart aflame with the love of mankind; with my soul daunted by nothing but fear of doing wrong; by the love of her who nurtured me upon her bosom and soothed my childish griefs; with an abiding faith in the Word of God, I vow, in the presence of the Divine Legislator and these witnesses, to fight commercialized vice in every form until my tongue is stilled by the Angel of Death."

Dr. John A. Wheeler, candidate for the state senate, completed his arduous campaign Monday night with an address at the auditorium of the Jacksonville high school. Dr. Wheeler was introduced by Rev. W. B. Spoons, as was Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, who came to Jacksonville to speak a good word on behalf of Dr. Wheeler, who was termed a consistent dry leader of the house.

Some of Dr. Wheeler's Jacksonville friends had never heard him make a public address until last night and learned that his is a very appealing type of oratory. The doctor speaks from a wide vocabulary and evidently from deep conviction.

Dr. Wheeler expressed his willingness to stand upon his record and declared that the Sullivan-Mester organization in Sangamon county is fighting him because he has opposed liquor and commercialized vice. He said that an effort has been made to defeat him on the theory that he is lined up with the Thompson and Lundin organization in Chicago and said that the Chicago machine has nothing whatever to do with the election in this district and his enemies in the Sullivan and Mester organization simply talked about Chicago in an effort to confuse the issue.

McBride Tells League Stand
Mr. McBride, who has been familiar with legislative affairs in Illinois as related to the Anti-Saloon League for a period of years, gave his qualified endorsement to Senator Wheeler. He said that he came down into the district not because of any personal interest, that the league took no part in such affairs except to support men who had been faithful and zealous for Anti-Saloon measures. He said that Mr. Seary had voted dry in a number of proposed measures but that part of his support was grudgingly given and that he was opposed to the prohibition of the act.

Senator Wheeler also paid his respects to Dr. E. B. Rogers as a candidate of the Sullivan-Mester machine, and suggested that it is strange that Dr. Rogers, who in his sermons in the spring of 1921 bitterly assailed the Sullivan-Mester organization for the vice conditions in Springfield, a year later became the candidate of that same organization for the legislature. He said that the Ministerial association of Springfield had declined to endorse Dr. Rogers, in fact, had asked him to withdraw from the contest and charged that the Sullivan-Mester organization was merely using Dr. Rogers to help camouflage their real efforts.

Dr. Wheeler said that he had been criticized by Mr. Seary for declaring that he would aid the promises of Governor Small when in the interests of the people. He said Mr. Seary had unfairly left of the final words and made it appear that Senator Wheeler would be unequivocally for anything proposed by Governor Small.

The solemn pledge above was given in the closing words of the senator's address, after he had quoted with pride editorial conference made in the Springfield Journal in his record both in the senate and in prior years. This strong commendation included these paragraphs:

"After four years of active service in the State Senate, Dr. Wheeler again presents himself as a candidate, this time for re-election. The State Journal has observed nothing in the conduct of Doctor Wheeler to alter its opinion which it expressed when he was a candidate for sheriff and when he was first elected to the senate. While his alignment politically has antagonized some of his former political associates, it has in no wise affected his capacity or his opportunities to be of use to the 45th senatorial district. Doctor Wheeler has made an energetic, capable member of the senate. He represents the capital district with credit to the people of the district. His re-nomination and re-election will be an expression of good political and business judgment on the part of the voters in the district."

And in its editorial of April 2nd, it said:

"As sheriff, Doctor Wheeler's administration was particularly marked for his warfare upon the various elements of the city of Springfield. It was persistent and uncompromising. So much so as to win for him the ardent approval of the reputable classes and the everlasting hatred of those against whom it was directed. It was no secret that the vicious elements of Springfield were solidly arrayed against him and may be expected forever to exert their influence at the polls against and ambition he may have for public office.

"Having full confidence in the ability and integrity of Doctor Wheeler the voters of the forty-fifth senatorial district chose him four years ago to represent this district in the state senate. The same intelligent and forceful fidelity to duty which commended him to the voters upon previous occasions has marked his senatorial career."

THE ROUTE TO THE SOUTH

Editor Journal:

In Friday's paper another Woodson resident comes to bat for the hard road thru Woodson. We have been trying to get them to advance a just cause for changing the route. Now they suggest the one of distance. This is the same old story. They try to give a method of measuring which seems to be that of a first grade pupil, as any child above that grade could plainly see that to go one-half mile beyond a given line and thence back could not be accomplished without going out of the way.

Hard roads have never been built thus far for the express purpose of connecting one small village with another. They are for the traveling public, who demand a direct route. The man who surveyed and laid out the west route knew what he was doing and does not need the help of any Woodson resident to hold his job.

As to motives, now as we seem to be trying to get this route left unchanged for selfish motives, what are the motives for the east road? Oiled roads have become a back number—not good enough. Just like a mule, always kicking. If given hard roads, satisfaction would last only a short time and they seem to be reaching out for the unavailable.

Now as to getting into the band wagon, we will get in and blow our horn just as loud as anybody when you start playing the right music. Otherwise you must blow your horn alone.

Respectfully,
Taxpayer and Landowner.

DR. DOLLEAR RETURNS FROM NORTHERN TRIP

Dr. A. H. Dollear returned Monday night from Minneapolis, where he attended sessions of the American College of Physicians and Surgeons. Prior to that gathering he was in attendance at the American Congress on Internal Medicine, held at Rochester, Minn.

Dr. Dollear was one of a party of physicians traveling by special train from Chicago to the convention. About 500 physicians were present from all parts of the United States.

VISITOR FROM SPRINGFIELD

Samuel J. Tompkins, clerk in the office of the internal revenue collector in Springfield, spent Sunday with his family here and remained for election day.

Baptist Church Notes

The second week of the evangelistic meetings at the First Baptist church conducted by State Evangelist Frank M. Dunk of Normal, Ill., opened up on Sunday with every indication that before Easter Sunday a large ingathering would result.

Evangelist Dunk has not been pressing the invitation to make a decision in the Christian life until Sunday, when at the regular morning and evening services twenty-two came forward in answer to his call. He preached in the morning on the subject, "The Church that Turned Christ Out," using the Church of Laodicea spoken of in Revelations as an illustration of what a church will do.

The minister's evening sermon was on "The Greatest Question of the Age." The attendance at both services was the largest of the week, the balcony being thrown open at the evening service. A large chorus choir assisted the evangelist in the singing. A "Sunbeam Chorus" of juniors in the three front pews aided materially in the service of song. After the singing of a new chorus by the evangelist, he called on any one in the large audience to stand up and sing it alone. After a few moments of silence a young lady stood and sang it as requested. It was repeated as a duet, after which the evangelist presented her with a new copy of the Alexander hymn book, out of which he was singing. This is the second copy he has had to part with on a similar proposition.

Evangelist Dunk spoke at the School for the Deaf on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The school sang "The Gloria" and repeated the Lord's prayer in the sign language. Three young women expressed in motion the hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee." The evangelist spoke interestingly of a selected Psalm by means of an interpreter. Over three hundred students were in attendance and by the expression on their faces they seemed to thoroughly enjoy the message of the minister.

Evangelist Dunk is expecting a big service on Monday night. This is usually his rest day, but he is following out a program of continuous service until Easter Sunday night.

On Tuesday morning he will conduct a big "sing" at the senior high school at the invitation of Principal Shafer. At 6:45 p. m. on the same day he will speak and sing at the vesper service at the Illinois Woman's college.

Vote for Louis Leurig, Republican candidate for committeeman, Precinct No. 4.

Coach Mitchell, Principal Shafer and Basketball Squad. Guests of the Club Monday Evening—Will Camp at Lake Mantanzas.

The Hi Y Club held its regular meeting last night at Congregational church. There were about 40 members present, the rain discouraging a larger turnout. Mr. Shafer, Coach Mitchell and the high school Basketball men were guests of honor. An excellent supper was served by the ladies of the church.

President Arter welcomed the guests in the name of the Hi Y Club. Harold Hunter, captain of the team for next year responded, thanking the club and expressing a determination to go thru next year with a clean record.

Coach Mitchell gave a talk on "Prospects for Next Year."

Mr. Shafer spoke at some length on "Standards for Next Year." It is Principal Shafer's desire to make the scholastic standards of J. H. S. second to none, and he explained that in line with his plans next year men will be ineligible to represent the school who are not doing acceptable work in four subjects.

Mr. Finley spoke on "Training for Athletics," and urged the fellows to keep themselves fit.

Mr. Finley also explained that it was impossible to get the Rotary Club cottage at Dosh for a Hi Y Camp, so in all probability the camp will be held at Lake Mantanzas up near Havana. Plans are being made to hold the camp within about a week after school is dismissed.

The remainder of the meeting was given over to Bible study.

MATEURS START O'CONNOR STORY

CHICAGO, April 10.—A report spread over three states tonight in the wire gossiping of amateurs brought hundreds of persons to Indiana towns to meet Train No. 11 on the Pennsylvania railroad in the hope of catching sight of Tommy O'Connor, fugitive gun-

Many, indeed, caught sight of a prisoner with fierce mustache who was closely guarded by two detectives and the rumors spread to the newspaper offices with the result that reporters met the train as it entered the city limits only to find that the prisoner, Julius C. Waldman, who was being brought back from Dayton, was accused of nothing worse than the violation of his parole from the state prison at Joliet.

BLANTON ASKS INVESTIGATION OF HIS CHARGES

Texas Congressman Probe Made of Purchases of Members

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The house is asked in a resolution introduced by Representative Blanton of Texas and published today to investigate at the matters brought up by him on docters in connection with charges relating to purchases by members from the congressional stationery store establishing.

Denying that he was seeking to accumulate wealth, or accusing others of nepotism or practicing it himself, Representative Blanton came back at Representative Garner of Texas, who attacked him in a speech last week by setting forth in the resolution that Mr. Garner's wife was his secretary drawing $3,200 a year. Mr. Blanton denied that he had two sons on the payroll adding that his brother was serving as his secretary.

The resolution declared that the report of the house clerk for 1920 showed "that in December 1919, Representative Blanton drew his entire stationery allowance of $125 in cash." That Representative Garner and Summers drew the same on several occasions, and that in the 1921 report it was shown that Republican leader Mondell "drew $9.45 on stationery and the balance of $115.55 in cash."

After quoting what was said in the house by Representative Parkley regarding the purchase by Blanton of a whiskey flask at Philadelphia thru the stationery room, the resolution continued:

"In truth and in fact the said stationery room did have on sale during the last Christmas holidays just such pocket whiskey flask covered with ostrich hide leather as was exhibited on the floor of the house and certain employees if placed on oath will testify that the same were sold there during the holidays." That Representative Blanton "ordered an exact duplicate and that if other creditable witnesses were sworn they would testify they saw flasks on sale in the house stationery room."

A male quartet including Albert Buckley, David Buckley, Miles Gish, and Samuel Smith furnished the music, the flowers being taken care of by the Mesdames Paul Markillie, Jesse McLaughlin, Ray Coulas and W. A. Fay and the Misses Mabel Vortman and Mildred Binnis. The bearers were Hunter Funk, Percy Funk, Robert H. Allen, D. Smith, Miles Gish and John Green.

Obituary.

Richard Homer Coulas was the youngest son of Richard T. and Lou Ella Coulas and was born April 23, 1890, at the family home on the west of Riggs. He departed this life Thursday evening, April 6, 1922, at Barnes hospital, St. Louis having undergone a very serious operation; however, he had been in a critical condition for several months.

He received his early education at Seminary, the district school of his home, and later attended the Winchester high school.

On April 2, 1921, he was united in marriage to Ferna McLaughlin of Winchester, who survives him, together with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. G. Coulas, and the following brothers and sisters: Arthur Elwyn Coulas of Larimore, N. D.; Thomas LeRoy Coulas of Lewiston, Idaho; J. Carl Coulas of Winchester; Frank Earl Coulas of Exeter, Cal.; Mrs. Edna Bell Campbell of Merritt; Mrs. Catherine Ella Davis of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Minnie Louise Campbell of Jacksonville.

He saw active overseas service in the great world war with Ambulance Co. 334, 509th Sanitary Train, 8th Division. He was a member of Winchester lodge, No. 105, A. F. & A. M.

In the departure of Dick the community loses a man of sterling worth. He was an ambitious, energetic, capable young man who was always ready to help a friend. He had a character and personality which won friendship from all those with whom he became acquainted. Early in life he united with the Riggs M. E. church, thus dedicating his life to Christ.

His home life meant everything to him, being a devoted son and loving husband. Even though he realized that more expert care could be given him at the hospital, he expressed the desire that he might be in his home when his Master called. Dick has suffered long but bore it with a brave heart and a hope that he might again be well. In his last words he said: "I have fought hard but I am finished."

Although his body is stilled forever, his memory will ever be present and his good young life will be reflected in the words and deeds of the loved ones and friends he has left behind.

To the Voters:

A number of statements, which are untrue, are being circulated by enemies of mine. I am not hitched up with any person or faction. I am making the race for County Judge on my own merits and good name. I am not obligated to anyone. I will do my duty as the law directs. Reply to Paul Samuell's Eleventh Hour Communication

You state in your communication that you can remain silent no longer. It does not appear that you have been silent, if the unfair statements which have been circulated by your supporters, evidently with your approval, are to be the criterion of your silence. No one has ever intimated but what you administered the duties of County Judge to the best of your ability. There has not been an unkind word said of your administration as County Judge by me or any of my friends, so far as I know.

You refer to certain persons who are in my employ being here working for the nomination of Mr. Green. There is no one here in my employ who is not as much a citizen of Jacksonville as you are, with a perfect right to be here and work and vote. Their services are voluntary, as you seem to intimate that the services of your friends are VOLUNTARY. My employes are entitled to three weeks' vacation in each year, and the week which they are spending here is one of the weeks of their vacation and is not at State expense.

You have deserted your duties as Judge and for the past three months have spent the greater part of your time electioneering for your renomination. Who pays you for that time? The taxpayers!

You refer to the fact that you are not receiving voluntary contributions. It, nevertheless, appears that you have spent a very large sum of money and have hired a large number of white and colored workers in almost every voting district in the county, and such persons have, for a considerable length of time been working for you for pay, or at least they say so.

I am a stockholder in the Clover Leaf Insurance Company, and wonder who is paying for the time that many of the employes of this Company have been spending for the last three or four weeks in campaigning for your nomination—whether that is paid by you or by the stockholders of the Company.

You refer to "Dick" Dye in a familiar way. You were very glad to work with Mr. Dye two years ago in the primary in the interest of Mr. Small for Governor. Mr. Dye received his appointment to his present position through the recommendation of Colonel Frank L. Smith, with the approval of Mr. Rowe of the Clover Leaf Company. I was not consulted with reference to the appointment of Mr. Dye, and did not know he was to be appointed until after the appointment had been made, and I read it in the paper.

Is it not a fact that you tried to get Mr. Dye for you Judge, and that what is worrying you, is that you think he is for Green and not for Samuell?

Trusting that you will not allow your feelings to overcome you in the future, and that whatever the result of the election may be, we will still be friends, I am

Cordially Yours

Andrew Russel.

Big Leagues Start On Flag Chase Wednesday

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 10.—"All prospects point to another successful baseball season," said President John A. Heydler of the National League today, in discussing the outlook in the senior association.

"The National League will open its forty seventh annual pennant race on Wednesday in possession of world's championship honors well balanced clubs and the confidence and following of baseball patrons in both east and west," he continued, "and I feel safe in predicting high class play, a close race and a fair share of the patronage. At least five clubs have a chance to win the 1922 pennant and since nothing is certain in baseball any one of the other three may spring a surprise. New York carries its strength and prestige over into the new season."

"Boston, Pittsburgh and St. Louis on the showing in 1921, must be given a chance and I am inclined to believe that these clubs are stronger today than was the case seven months ago."

"Attendance during the spring exhibition games in major league cities has been unusually large and the interest shown exceptionally keen. These indications, I think point to another prosperous season."

"The fact that Judge Landis will devote his entire time and attention to the game this season and as his commissioner visit all the major league cities will also exert an influence for greater popularity among the followers of the game and greater efforts among the players and club owners to maintain the standards and pace which Judge Landis has set."

Tigers Fighting Club
DETROIT, Mich., April 10.—Detroit will put a fighting club into the American League pennant this year, but beyond this, Manager Cobb has ventured no prediction as to the part the Tigers will play in the impending campaign.

Early indications are the team will rise or fall with its recruits, for of 16 youngsters taken into the training camp at Augusta, Ga., eight survived the "weeding out" process and to these is added George Cutshaw, the veteran obtained from national League on waivers last year. Cutshaw is expected to start at second base.

The catching corps alone remained from last year. Bassler, Woodall and Manion holding their places.

The most vital changes were made in the infield and pitching. "Topper" Rigney from Fort Worth will be at short where Bush and Flagstead played. Flagstead again will be available for utility duty. Two recruits, Haney and Clark were retained.

Blue and Jones, veterans will once more be at first and third respectively. Cobb is planning to carry 10 pitchers. Four of them are making their fast company debut.

Johnson and Pallett came from Portland in exchange for several players and $40,000; Olson was with Syracuse last year and Lil Stoner is from Oklahoma City. All are right handers. The holdovers are Ely, Hollind and Dams, right handers and Cole, Oldham and Steward, portiders.

The regular outfielders, Cobb, Heilman and Veach—will be unchanged but Johnny Mohardt, of Notre Dame, made such a favorable impression that he has been retained for emergency.

Senators Look Strong
WASHINGTON, April 10.—Strengthening by the acquisition of Roger Peckinpaugh, former shortstop of the champion New York team and the addition of several promising rookie pitchers, the Washington Americans seem to be assured of a first division berth and regarded as flag contenders. The players had a satisfactory training trip and demonstrated by winning seven of eleven exhibition games with the Boston Nationals that they were in good physical condition.

Walter Johnson who usually pitches the opening game, will not do so this year. His training has been retarded by illness, but he is rapidly rounding into form.

George Mogridge, leading left-hander of the league last season, probably will oppose the Yankees in the first game. This pair will be supported by Erickson, Zachary and Courtney, holdovers from last year, and Francis Phillips Gleason and Bill Hart, Leon Goshen a recruit from the South Atlantic League with reputation for slugging is expected to win an outfield berth. Clyde Milan who has succeeded George McBride as manager has the team running smoothly.

New York Keenly Interested
NEW YORK, April 10.—With three major league baseball teams within its boundaries, two of which were pennant winners in 1921 and contenders for world series honors, baseball followers of greater New York are keenly interested in the prospects for the coming season.

Despite the fact that the Giants and the Yankees were materially strengthened during the past winter, neither team has visions of a walkover. In a paper analyzing both New York teams are entitled to be considered the favorites in their respective leagues, yet each team has shown weakness in vital departments in their spring games.

The Giants, world's champions have added the brilliant Heinie Groh and two hard hitting minor league outfielders, Ralph Shinnier and Ike Boone. Shinnier has succeeded Burns in centerfield.

With the acquisition of Groh, the spectacular Frisch has been switched back to second base and the present infield of Groh, Bancroft, Frisch and Kelly unquestionably ranks with the greatest in the game's history.

Should the Giants falter this season they will do so because of pitching. At present Arthur Nehf the crack southpaw is the only one of McGraw's pitching regulars in top notch form. The Douglas and Jesse Barnes have been showing better in recent exhibition games. Toney was left in Nashville to round himself into condition. Of the new pitchers Virgil Barnes, recalled from Milwaukee, Jonnard, and Larry Benton look as tho they will be of most service to McGraw.

Without Ruth and Bob Meusel the Yankees are not a particularly strong aggregation but the club has the longest pitching staff in the game in Mays, Hoyt, Jones, Shawkey and Bush, and these twirlers must keep the Yankees in the race during the period when the two sluggers are suspended.

Frank Baker's fielding has been below his usual par on the training trip, but he has been hitting hard. Ward, Miller and Scott have hit very feebly.

While both Meusel are absent the Yankee outfield will be a rather makeshift affair. Fewster will start in left; while two recruits, Skinner and McMillan, will alternate in right.

It may be found necessary to put Catcher Schang in right field to get the advantage of additional batting strength.

Brooklyn's victories over the New York Americans return trip from the southern training trip have given reason to believe that the strengthened pitching staff and rejuvenated infield give the Robbins an excellent chance to finish in the first division in the national League race.

The team's greatest strength is in the box with pitchers Grimes, Ruether, Cadore, Marnaux, Mitchell, and Smith. Veterans and three promising youngsters, Cordiner, Vance and Shriver.

Sox and Cubs Only Mediocre
CHICAGO, April 10.—The White Sox and the Cubs, which in the past have brought league championships and the world's title to Chicago will start the 1922 major league races with clubs of mediocre calibre. Neither is a pennant possibility but each expects to win a lot of games and make things interesting for the leaders.

The Nationals are a reconstructed club, with many youngsters, while the American League has almost the same team as last year.

On Urban Faber, pitching ace of the American League will rest most of the White Sox twirling duties. Dick Kerr may be missing, as the diminutive twirler has threatened to quit organized baseball. Manager Gleason has great faith in Shovel Hodge, and believes that two or three of his recruits will make good. The infield is the same as last year with the exception of third base, which will be cared for by Harvey McCullhan, who has been a utility infielder. Eddie Malgou will be retained for utility work.

The outfield will remain intact while in the catching department, Schalk again will do most of the receiving.

Disappointed last season because of the poor showing of the Nationals, Manager Kilmer has built up his club. He believes the team is 50 percent stronger than in 1921. Alexander is expected to have another successful season and with the aid of Steuhand, Jones, Cheeves and a couple of others, the pitching staff should be an improvement over last year.

Golvin and Grimes will alternate at first base while Marty Krug acquired from the Pacific Coast league will hold second. Hollcher will be back at short while Kelleher will replace the veteran Charley Deal at third. The outfield promises to be better than last season. Hack Miller, slugger from the coast league will probably hold the regular birth in center. Barber will start in right until Max Flack regains his health. The acquisition of Catcher Hartnett, it is believed will enable the manager to devote more time to the running of the club.

Pirates Look Weak
Pittsburgh, Pa., April 10.—Instead of being in the front rank of pennant hunters as they were in this time last season, the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League were observed by baseball authorities tonight as no better than an uncertain fourth. The team is regarded as weak in every department except the pitching staff.

St. Louis Team Looks Good
ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 10.—St. Louis is sending two well balanced baseball clubs into the Pennant races of the National and American Leagues this season and it is believed they will be pennant contenders. Each manager believes his club will top the list at the end of the season. The city is "baseball mad" as was demonstrated last Sunday at the final game between the two clubs for the city championship when more than 30,000 fans attended.

The Nationals, third last year, evidently aim to outstrip the New York Giants by powerful batting. Nearly all of the team's regulars hit well above the 300 mark last year, including Hornsby 1921 champion batter.

The infield is unchanged from last season. The pitching staff is doubtful and its ability to win games depends upon the showing of the veterans Doak and Pfeffer who will be assisted mainly by Perlica, Haines, Bailey, Goodwin, Walker, Sherdell and Benton, a recruit.

Admittedly weak behind the bat, the team requires another first string catcher to assist Vernon Clemens and Eddie Ainsmith. In the outfield, Mueller, Mann, Schultz, Heathcote, Smith and McHenry will take turns chasing flies. All are heavy hitters.

Finishing third last season, Manager Lee Pohl, predicts his American League team will make a better showing this season by virtue of an improved infield.

Frank Ellerbo, obtained late last season from Washington will play third with Gerber at short, McManus for second and George Sisler at first. The pitching staff Prudett, Danforth, Meine, Shocker, Davis, Bayne, Vangilder and Wright is expected to be strong.

Cleveland Strengthened
CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 10.—The Cleveland Americans have strengthened their infield by the acquisition of "Stuffy" McNinnis, the veteran first baseman, according to James Dunn, president of the club.

In obtaining the star from the Athletics, the Indians lost the services of Elmer Smith in right field.

With Wood and Graney to alternate in the right garden; Speaker holding down center and Jamieson and Joe Evans, alternating in left the Indians present a first class outfield.

With McNinnis at the initial sack, Wambegans at second, Sewall at short and Gardner at third, the Indians have a strong infield.

The regular pitchers will be Coveskie, Bagby, Uhle, Sotheron, Morton and Malls all with the club last season and Dave Keefe formerly with the Athletics.

Three catchers to be kept are Steve O'Neill, Les Nunamaker and "Ginger" Shinault.

Vote for Chas. Souza, Republican candidate Central committee; district No. 5.

S. T. ZACHARY WOULD BE TRIED ELSEWHERE

APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE FILED.

Defendant in Murder Case Declares Prejudice in the County Will Make it Impossible for Him to Secure a Fair Trial Here States Attorney Will Resist the Motion.

A petition was filed in the office of Circuit Clerk Wanamaker Sunday by attorneys for Samuel T. Zachary, asking for a change of venue. Notice was filed with State's Attorney Robinson of that fact and the argument on the petition will be had April 20 when Judge Smith comes to enter the final orders for the February term of the circuit.

The law requires that when a petition for change of venue is filed subsequent to the next term of court after the commission of the alleged crime, that a ten day notice must be given to the state's attorney.

The petition filed by Mr. Zachary alleges that there is very unfriendly feeling to him in the county because of alleged inflammatory articles published in the daily newspapers of Jacksonville at the time of the killing. He further says that general misunderstanding of the facts has resulted in a feeling of animosity to him.

Mr. Zachary's attorneys are John M. Butler and William N. Hargrove. State's Attorney Robinson said yesterday that he would resist the motion for a change to the best of his ability, as he does not believe that there is any general unfair feeling toward Mr. Zachary, and he further feels that it would be entirely possible to give the defendant a fair and impartial trial in this court.

The text of Mr. Zachary's petition is as follows:

This petitioner further shows unto the court that he had been confined in the county jail of Morgan county from the 16th day of November, A. D. 1921, until the 25th day of March A. D. 1922, at which time he was released on bail, pursuant to the order of Judge Smith in a habeas corpus proceeding; that the petition for writ of habeas corpus was filed in vacation and that counsel for this petitioner gave notice that the hearing thereon could be before the Honorable E. S. Smith at his chambers in Jacksonville, Illinois, so that until the evening of March 23, 1922 it was supposed and expected by the parties interested therein that said hearing would be in Jerseyville.

Said at Hearing.

On the evening of March 23, 1922, the said Judge Smith called one of the attorneys for this petitioner and advised him that he could be in Jacksonville on the following day to hear said petition, and thereupon said attorney so notified the State's Attorney, but this petition shows unto the court that there was no published notice in the newspapers or otherwise that said hearing would be in Jacksonville, yet the defendant shows unto the court that the interest of the community is such that also there was no published notice of the time of said hearing, still on March 24, 1922, at 1:30 p. m., when the hearing on said petition was had, the circuit court room in the court house in the city of Jacksonville, was completely filled with persons and that at said time there was nothing to come before the judge of said court except said petition, and that said room contained about five hundred people.

This defendant further shows unto the court that when the said Judge Smith made the order admitting this petitioner to bail, hundreds of people in said county expressed themselves as dissatisfied therewith and that this petitioner was not entitled to bail and that the county officials ought to turn one Charles Ellisworth Pires loose, who was then a prisoner in said jail, having been convicted of the crime of murder and having been sentenced to thirty years in the penitentiary, because the said Pires was no more guilty than this petitioner.

The defendant further shows unto the court that ever since said homicide there had been the wildest stories and rumors circulated in said county against this petitioner, such as, that this petitioner had killed a man in Kentucky before he came to this county, and also, that this petitioner had stated that as soon as he got out of jail there were three other persons whom he wanted to get, and also, that shortly before the homicide this petitioner was sneaking up a fence row with a shot gun in hand for the purpose of ambushing Luther Crawford, deceased, and also, that this defendant at one time when there were threshers at his place, had made the statement that no Democrat would eat at his table, all of which stories are untrue, but which nevertheless are believed by a great number of people, who are circulating the same to the great damage of this petitioner.

Some Facts of Record.

This petitioner further shows unto the court that the homicide is alleged to have been committed on November 16, 1921, and that this petitioner was confined in the jail of Morgan county from the 16th day of November, 1921, until March 25, 1922, that the indictment against this defendant in this cause was returned by the grand jury on November 17, 1921, and that said indictment was set for trial during the week of November 28, 1921, and that on the 29th day of November, 1921, the circuit court on the motion of this defendant, continued said cause until the next term of court because this affiant and his counsel could not get ready for trial within such a short time.

This petitioner further shows unto the court that the November term of court was adjourned for the term on the 30th day of December, 1921, and this petitioner shows unto the court that the causes for which this petitioner asks a change of venue in this case have come to the knowledge of this petitioner since the first day of January, A. D. 1922.

This petitioner further shows unto the court that the inhabitants of said county of Morgan are too prejudiced against him that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial in said county and he therefore moves the court that the venue in this case be changed to some convenient county of this state where no such prejudice exists.

This petitioner further shows unto the court that he is not guilty of the crime charged in said indictment and that his application is not made for delay but that he may have a fair trial in this cause.

Refers to Killing.

Now comes Samuel T. Zachary, defendant in the above entitled cause and shows unto the court that he has resided in Morgan county, Illinois, for more than 45 years last past and that he is personally acquainted with many people in every precinct and township in said county where this defendant resides, he is intimately acquainted with nearly all the inhabitants of said part of said county; that Luther Crawford, now deceased, and whom this petitioner is charged with killing, was a farmer and operator of a threshing outfit and as such was acquainted with a large number of people in said county.

This defendant further shows unto the court that he fears that he cannot have an impartial trial in said county on account of the prejudice of the inhabitants thereof and that a large number of the inhabitants of said county who are subject to jury service have stated that they believed this defendant guilty of the said charge of murder and a great number have stated that he ought to be hanged.

This defendant further shows that there are in the City of Jacksonville two daily papers, to-wit: the Jacksonville Daily Journal and the Jacksonville Courier, and that said papers published accounts of the homicide of Luther Crawford in glaring headlines, and that the Jacksonville Daily Journal particularly published a very misleading and prejudicial account of said homicide and this affiant attaches copies of the issues of said paper showing the accounts of said homicide and makes said issues of said papers a part of this petition.

This petition further shows that the circulation of the Jacksonville Journal is 5300, and extends to every section of the county, and is the principal newspaper published in said county, and that the circulation of the Jacksonville Courier is 3,000 and extends to every part of said county.

This petition particularly shows unto the court that in the headlines over the article purporting to narrate the story of said supposed crime is stated: "Both of the victim's arms are shot off" and also in the body of said article it was stated: "All of them said that Mr. Crawford did not call Mr. Zachary—that he came up to the party in the road. They also said that at no time did Crawford take hold of Mr. Zachary."

The witness said that the men had an altercation and that Crawford turned and walked away from Zachary. That when at a distance of about twenty feet he turned in response to something that Zachary had said. It was then, according to these witnesses, that Zachary fired.

The first shot tore off one of Crawford's arms and then a shot struck him in the breast, knocking him down. The witnesses told Mr. Robinson that Zachary then fired two shots while Crawford was lying on the ground. One of these shots tore off the other arm, and the other tore off the stomach.

Says Statements Untrue.

This petition further shows unto the court that each and every one of said statements is untrue but that nevertheless the said statements contained in said paper were widely read throughout the county and have made a very great impression on the inhabitants of said county and that the people of said county believe said statements and that they are not in an impartial state of mind to listen to the defense of this petitioner and decided his case impartially.

This petitioner further shows unto the court that great excitement prevailed, not only in the neighborhood where the said Luther Crawford resided, but also in the City of Jacksonville, which is the county seat of said county; and the body of the said Luther Crawford was brought to Jacksonville and that at the time of the inquest into the cause of death there was a good crowd present and hundreds of persons, including almost all of the grand jury which returned the indictment, viewed the corpse of the said Luther Crawford at the undertaking establishment where it was being cared for.

To the People of Morgan County:-

DEAR CITIZEN:

In the last mail before primary day when I am given no opportunity to reply by mail, several thousand letters bearing the signature of Andrew Russet are sent to the voters of Morgan Count urging my defeat.

I am loath to engage in political controversies. Ordinarily I consider it unbecoming a judicial candidate to do so, but "eleventh hour stratagem" will allow me to remain silent no longer.

In my endeavor to administer the duties of County Judge without fear or favor—fear of political bosses or favor to their financial institutions—I have apparently incurred the displeasure of the political dictator of this county—Andrew Russel. He has marked me for slaughter and I want the voters to know the extreme measures that are being used to defeat me.

Notwithstanding the persistent advertisements of my opponent that he is not the candidate of any political boss or faction, Mr. Russel, nevertheless, assumes to speak with authority for my opponent and states that my opponent "has no organization with paid agents aiding him in his campaign but has to depend on the voluntary support of his friends." That is a frank admission indeed. THAT VOLUNTARY SUPPORT consists chiefly of the powerful political machine of Andrew Russel collaborating with Dick Dye, including a squad of employees of the State Auditor's office who have deserted their duties and residences in Springfield during the past week and have been and will probably be on primary day attempting to tell you citizens how to vote for Judge. I presume the enormous sums of money expended among the negro population of this city in behalf of my opponent are likewise the VOLUNTARY SUPPORT OF FRIENDS.

I am not receiving either directly or indirectly the voluntary contributions of big interests or politicians or any other persons. I am paying my own campaign expenses and I shall not feel embarrassed after election by political obligations. I have not been and shall not be subservient to political bosses or financial institutions. I could not be and keep my self respect.

If am favored with your approval tomorrow I promise to conduct affairs of the office impartially and on business principles. I have no enemies to punish or special interests to serve. On my record of service and my allegiance to the people of Morgan County I ask your support.

Very Truly Yours

PAUL SAMUEL

EIGHT YEAR OLD BOY IS ELECTROCUTED

James Emmons, Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Emmons Dies Instantly Sunday Afternoon at Tendick Brick Yard—Coroner's Inquest Held Monday.

James Emmons, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Emmons of 1019 Lincoln avenue, met instantaneous death about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Tendick brick yard in the southwestern part of the city. The boy in company with a younger brother and Edward LeRoy Myers, went to the brick yard Sunday afternoon to play. They climbed to the top of a box car there and the older Emmons boy climbed out upon a scaffold, extending between two light poles. He thrust his thumb into a box on the scaffold and came into contact with a live wire, his death resulting almost instantly.

Coroner Charles A. Rose held an inquest Monday morning at the Reynolds chapel, and after hearing all the evidence the jurors returned a verdict that the boy came to his death by accidentally coming into contact with a live wire at the Tendick brick yard. The jurors were W. J. Wood, foreman; Ralph Withee, Ernest May, Renugh Jennings, J. R. Reynolds and W. J. Houston.

Witnesses at the inquest were Dr. A. M. Kline, who was summoned soon after the tragedy; Edward LeRoy Myers, a playmate, and Floyd C. Smith, who was one of the first to reach the scene of the accident.

According to the story of the Myers boy, who is about seven years of age, the three lads went to the brick yard Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock. They all climbed to the top of a box car there and the older Emmons boy climbed out upon a scaffold which extends between two poles. While standing with one foot on the car and the other on the platform, he thrust his right thumb into a small black box. Immediately he fell backward and to the ground.

The Myers boy ran to his own home and advised his mother of the happening, and the latter notified F. P. Reese who immediately went to the scene of the accident.

It was the testimony of Dr. King that he found the unfortunate boy lying face downward upon the ground near the box car. He made use of the lungmotor for about thirty minutes without avail and then pronounced the boy dead from electrocution.

Floyd C. Smith testified that he reached the brick yard soon after the accident and before the arrival of the physician. He described the position of the boy's body upon the ground near the box car.

The remains were taken to the Reynolds mortuary and prepared for burial. Today they will be taken to Modesto for interment.

James Samuel Emmons, son of James M. and Lucretia Emmons, was born November 29, 1913, at Exeter, Ill. Besides his parents he leaves one sister Dorothy, aged 11 years and one brother, Raymond, aged 5 years. He is also survived by his two grandmothers and one grandfather and a number of other relatives.

WILL MAKE FILTER PLANT MUCH LARGER

Contract for Addition Let to S. G. Chumley—Council Passed Ordinance for Jordan Street Pavement.

At the session of the city council Monday night bids were received for a new filter unit and for additional coagulating apparatus at the Jacksonville water station. The contract for the filtration unit was awarded to S. G. Chumley on his bid of $6,500. The matter of the purchase of additional equipment was deferred, this matter being in the hands of the water committee.

The roll call showed Mayor Crabtree, City Clerk Scott and the following aldermen present: Aldermen Flynn, Lonergan, Ehnie, Chapin, Cain, Williamson and Rowe. A little later Alderman McGinnis came in and thus kept up his good record as the council records do not show that he was ever absent.

Alderman Ehnie reported some further complaints about smoke from the Capps & Sons factory and this matter was referred to the public health committee. The ordinance providing for submitting the question of picture shows to the vote of the people was passed, as was the ordinance providing for the construction of the Jordan and North Diamond street pavement.

Alderman Chapin reported the sale of the old pumping station building to Vasconcellos & Sons at $120. This was the highest bid received. There is very little material in the building and the contract provides for the removal of rubbish. The highest bid for the old boilers was $250 by J. Cohen & Son and by vote of the council the water committee was instructed to accept this bid.

Under the head of new business the bids were opened for the construction of a filtration unit which when completed will furnish additional filter capacity of 500,000 gallons a day and also increase the coagulating capacity.

The bids for the concrete and brick work in connection with the filter unit, designated as proposal A, were as follows:

John T. Walbridge, $10,599; S. G. Chumley, $6,500; Otis Hoffman, $11,000; Myers Construction Co., $11,700; Joshua Vasconcellos & Sons, $9,520. Only two bids were made for the filter equipment, designated as proposal B: New York Continental Jewell Filtration Co., $3,600; International Filtration Co., $3,997.

went to Naples Sunday and were united in marriage. This will be surprising news to their friends as they had kept the plans absolutely to themselves. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Cavan of the Bluffs church. The bride was in the senior class of the community high school and is a young woman of charming personality. The young people have the best wishes of their friends.

Mrs. Clyde Williams of Morgan received word Thursday that the remains of her brother Chas. T. Wolford, who was killed November 12, 1918 in France, would arrive at Brooklyn that day. The body will be shipped here where the funeral will be held in charge of the American Legion.

Miss Catherine Anderson was a visitor in Jacksonville Tuesday. John Conrady, who was injured several days ago when he fell from his engine at the coal chute returned to his home here last Friday from the Washburn hospital in Decatur. It was found by an X-ray that Mr. Conrady has sustained a fracture of the bone just above his right arm. He is carrying the arm in a plaster cast and is able to be about but it will be some time before he will be able to go back to his work.

Among Jacksonville visitors Tuesday were Mrs. John O'Brien and Miss Catherine Anderson.

Mrs. C. O. Doyle was a visitor in Jacksonville Friday.

Mrs. Joe C. Reed was a business visitor in Jacksonville Monday.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF PRECINCT 7

I am respectfully offering you my services as your representative upon the County Central Committee. The importance of this position is generally overlooked. The policies and principles of the Republican Party, all the way up to the National Capitol, are rooted in the soil of the local precinct, and your Committeeman is the living connection between yourselves and the framers of our laws and our institutions.

Upon the competence of your Committeeman depends your ability to impress your views and your wishes upon your sworn servants in Office, in the Legislature, and in the halls of Congress. It has been my privilege to serve upon this Committee in other years, and also as a member (and Secretary) of the Senatorial Committee, and as a member (and Chairman) of your Congressional Committee. If you see fit to name me as your Central Committeeman at the Election on Tuesday, April 11, I will try to fill the position worthily, and I will greatly appreciate the confidence you express by your vote—and by the kind words you may find it possible to speak to others.

Very sincerely, your for service,

E. F. JOHNSTON.

HOLY WEEK PROGRAM IN MANY CHURCHES

Observance Will Be More Widespread Than Usual—Federal Council of Churches Issues Call

Washington, April 10.—Urging the public to observe Holy Week, as a special occasion for public service and consecration, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America has issued an Easter call to prayer. Indications are that the Lenten season is being more widely observed throughout the country than ever before. With the great growth in church membership shown by the recent compilations of the Federal Council of Churches, it appears as though the country is on the verge of a great religious awakening.

The call says: "The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and the Commissions on Evangelism of its constituent churches unites in this Easter call to prayer, to consecration and to service at an hour when the weakness of humanity, without divine strength is clearly revealed in the affairs of men. Let us continue to 'pray without ceasing' that the hand of God and the spirit of Christ may so guide and inspire the nations that they may press on towards the brotherhood of men."

"The streams of human life can rise no higher than this source, nations can be redeemed only as mankind is convinced of sin, induced to repentance and becomes subject to our divine Lord and Master. National hatreds can only be overcome and human compassion can only be deepened by getting hatred and sin out of the hearts of men and out of our own hearts by the expulsive power of the love of Christ."

"Our first call is to self-examination and penitence. Let us, therefore, seek with humanity and faith for the outpouring of the Spirit in the lives of men. We have abundant reason for hope. The result of our prayer and service during the past two years was an unusual increase in the membership of our churches. This must not be permitted to induce self-satisfaction, but it should hearten us and fill us with renewed faith that the prayers of millions of the members of our churches will bring immeasurable release of spiritual power."

The topics for the services during Holy Week are:
—Tuesday, April 11—Kinship with the Redeemer.
—Wednesday, April 12—Following the Redeemer.
—Thursday, April 13—The Worth of the Redeemer.
—Friday, April 14—The Victory of the Redeemer.
—Easter, April 16—The Living Redeemer.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 15c and 30c a box.

NORTH MAIN PAVEMENT GIVES AWAY OVER SEWER

A part of the concrete pavement on the North Main road just outside the city limits caved in yesterday. The cave-in was the result of the recent heavy rains, which overtaxed the sewer and undermined the pavement. The section involved is about sixty feet long by fifteen feet wide. It is the statement of men familiar with paving projects that the water which escaped from the sewer forced the pavement up for a time and then washed the earth away from underneath it. The result was that the pavement dropped several feet.

It is still possible to use the North Main road, as there is room for traffic to pass by the spot where the cave-in occurred. It will be some time before the pavement is put back into proper shape, as much work must of necessity be done to bring this about.

AUTOS COLLIDED.
Quite a bit of excitement was created Monday afternoon when the cars driven by J. W. Baptist and Henry W. Boston collided on West State street in front of Dr. Applebee's office. Both cars were headed west and collided in such a manner as to implicate a third car which was parked on the north side of the street. Both drivers stopped their cars quickly and little damage was done excepting to the fenders.

George L. Riggs has served as county clerk of Morgan county for a little more than three years and is seeking renomination on his record in office.

As an official in charge of an important department of county affairs, Mr. Riggs has at all times kept the interests of the people and of the county foremost. The thousands of people who have come in contact with the office during Mr. Riggs' term of service can testify that every possible courtesy has been extended to them, and know that business has been handled in a prompt and efficient way. The county clerk's office in many ways comes in intimate contact with the public. The opportunity is given to know the kind of service available.

Mr. Riggs is a man of the highest personal integrity and as people generally have come to know him well during the past three years they have had increasing respect for him and his policies.

The same characteristics that have marked Mr. Riggs' private life have dominated his official record, and so at this time he can come before the people with all good conscience and ask for their support in the primary contest. (Adv.)

NEW UPURNS IN PRICE OF WHEAT

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 10.—New upturns in the price of wheat took place today owing largely to an unexpected advance of quotations at Liverpool and to unaveritable domestic crop reports. The market closed with May $1.35 1/2 1 1/2c net higher with May $1.35 1/2 to $1.33 1/2 and July $1.21 1/2 to $1.21 1/4. Corn gained 1/4 to 1/2 and oats 1/4 to 1/2. In provisions the outcome varied from 10c decline to a rise of 5c.

With a rise in sterling exchange showing decided strength wheat traders were disposed to give a little more weight than usual to the course of values at Liverpool especially as houses with eastern connections were good buyers here. It soon became apparent that the United States visible supply total for the week would increase to a greater extent than had generally been expected.

Larger receipts of wheat in Chicago than have been witnessed for some time failed to check the upward tendency of the market an impression gaining ground that the bulk of the arrivals would go to eastern mills. Gos-tats that Dutch wheat might be shipped on big scale to Chicago by lake had brought about a material setback in prices at the close. Wet cold weather ill adapted for field work was responsible for advances in the market for corn and oats. Provisions went up in price with hogs and grain, but the effect was afterward counterbalanced by selling ascribed to packers.

A SWEET LITTLE BABY BOY

Makes a Bright Spot in Every Home. A Comfort in Years to Come

Park Rapids, Minnesota.—"I have taken your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—when I was a girl for pains and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy and will send you his picture if you wish to publish it. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born."—Mrs. WM. JOHNSON, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

To marry and arrive at middle age without children is a great disappointment to many women. Think of the joy and comfort other women have in their children as they grow older.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to bring great happiness to many families by restoring women to health. Often the childless home is due to a run down condition of the wife, which may be helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It brought health and happiness into the home of Mrs. Johnson. "Why not to yours?"

DR. MCGAW HEARD IN THREE ADDRESSES

Representative of National Reform Association Made Plea for Use of Bible in Public Schools

"We have sown to the winds of secularism in public education and are now reaping hell's whirlwind of crime and anarchy," said Dr. James S. McGaw, America's rapid-fire civic evangelist, when he spoke on "The Banished Book and the Bad Boy" at the mass meeting held Sunday afternoon in the Northminster Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Ministerial Association of Jacksonville.

Dr. McGaw is the general secretary of the National Reform Association which is at present conducting the state-wide campaign for the ratification of the constitution permitting the reading of selections of various verses of the Bible in the public schools of Illinois.

The rapid-fire civic evangelist made good Sunday afternoon at the mass meeting and many present said it was one of the greatest addresses ever given in this city. "Dad" Sears said, "It's worth a million dollars."

In part Dr. McGaw said: "The supreme purpose of the public schools is to make a citizen," said Dr. McGaw, "let us nail that down hard and fast. It is that much of national defense against our own growing youth. It is for this reason that we have poured a billion and a half of dollars into public school buildings, spend half a billion more annually for their maintenance, sent out our army of more than a half million teachers into the school rooms and have placed a compulsory school law on the statute books of practically every state in the Union. No—republic can endure unless built upon intelligence and morality."

"The question which every tax payer, parent and patriot has the right to ask is 'What kind of a citizen shall he be?' Thinking citizens throughout the country, respond with one voice that he must be, first of all, a true, liberty loving American. We have thrown wide open our doors and millions from many lands have crowded in. The task of the teacher in the school room is to take this raw material and by process of education in vogue transform it into an all round symmetrical American citizenship."

Defines an Alien.
"We have done much loose thinking about what constitutes an alien. We have imported from northern Europe millions, who while they were foreigners, were never in the truest sense aliens. An alien is any man or woman, home born or foreign born, who is in practical enmity toward the great Christian principles which made America and the Christian institutions founded upon those principles. It takes no offense what their position or how loud their profession of loyalty, they are aliens and should be treated as such."

"We have never had an established church but we have always had a national religion. Our forefathers, the fleeing the union of church and state had the good common sense to bring with them their Bible and to recognize the vast difference between the divorce of church and state and the divorce of the state from the religion which must make it. They used the Bible as their text book in founding our institutions and liberties, indeed their religion in all of their fundamental legal documents as well as the civic customs, manners and morals of the nation. They wove the religion of their Bible into the whole warp and woof of the national fabric. This religion constitutes the national religion and has nothing to do with ecclesiastical establishments. Religion and church are not synonymous. The state would have its relationship and responsibility to God if there was not a church in existence. This national religion constitutes the national genius and the only hope of perpetuating our republic is to see that the heart of every candidate for American citizenship throbs in full sympathy with it. The Bible made America and you cannot make true, liberty loving Americans without the Bible.

"The next demand of the people upon our public schools must be that they produce law abiding citizens."

Crime Is Rampant.
"Our jails, penitentiaries and houses of correction are overcrowded, our mail trains manned by marines, armored cars are being built to haul your mail and mine thru city streets, banditry of the most daring, dangerous and desperate kind is rampant. Thirty-eight towns of the Union have been under martial law in the last year and lynchings disgrace the country both North and South. Burglary insurance has increased fifty per cent in the last six weeks. Anarchy infests every strategic industrial center from coast to coast, sowing discord and discontent, riot and bloodshed, insurrection and revolution, holding up our financial progress and threatening the whole economic social, industrial, political and religious order of the nation. This and much more is only part of the harvest being reaped by trying to rear the youth of the land without the inculcation of the Word of God and Christian principles."

"It requires an atheist or an infidel to make an anarchist. No man has ever seen a Christian Bolshevik or a W. W. Russia is rotten today because of a foolhardy attempt to build a government and nation on the shifting sands of atheism. Atheism has built nothing. It is a negative quality and can make no positive contribution to the welfare of mankind. Against God it is opposed to the right of man and in the end means high handed anarchy. Soviet Russia has no recognized moral standard. It has no soul. It is bound to go down. The sense of God in the heart of the victimized peasant is the only hope of the resurrection of Russia from the prostration in which it lies."

Most Dangerous Citizen.
"The most dangerous citizen is not the immoral but the unmoral. The immoral man may commit a misdemeanor but he has a standard for conscience, he knows right from wrong; he may come back and make a one hundred per cent citizen. The unmoral has no fear of God. He recognizes no rights of either God or man, which he feels bound to respect. He counts human life as a mere bubble on the stream; he puts a hair trigger on his gun and pulls before his victim has time to offer resistance. The new crop of criminals are of this type and they range between 15 and 25 years of age."

"Under our constitution we allow plenty of room for the exercise of the rights of conscience but every one must remember that the state has rights which every citizen is bound to respect. The state has the right to protect itself against the vicious, the lawless and the anarchist, and if it is found that the Bible contains the best code of morals, and America's only recognized standard for conscience, the state has the right to make full provision in its constitution for its use and by mandate place it on the teacher's desk to be read morning by morning throughout the year, as has recently been done in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Tennessee and Alabama."

"What true patriot would wish to sell the great American birthright of every boy and girl for the mess of political pottage? We must get back to first things first and every true American stand guard over the fundamentals of

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS
Inhaling the fumes of turpentine and white lead often weaken the kidneys. Exposure, frequent colds and chills and strains help start the trouble.

If your back aches, if sharp pains strike you in the back when stooping, lifting or working, if you have headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains; if the urine is discolored or passages painful and scanty, try Doan's Kidney Pills, so well recommended by men in the painting trade. Here's Jacksonville testimony:

Harry Franz, painter, 410 N. Fayette St., says: "I had a bearing down pain through my back and every time I caught cold it made the trouble worse. When I would bend over I would have such a sharp pain take me across my kidneys that I could hardly straighten up again. My kidneys acted too freely and the secretions contained a reddish powder like brick dust. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Armstrong's Drug Store and used them. They relieved my trouble and I have never found anything as good as Doan's." Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., N. Y.

American security and perpetuity." Dr. McGaw preached for the Commercial Traveling Men in the morning service at the Westminster Presbyterian church and addressed an interested audience in the Brooklyn M. E. church in the evening on the subject "The Religion of Old Glory, Shall We Keep It?"

One Reason Why CASCARA QUININE Acts On The Spot

HILL'S C. B. Q. Tablets are best by test. Try this simple experiment:
1. Drop a C. B. Q. Tablet in a glass of clear water.
2. Instantly the tablet begins disintegrating or "breaking up."
3. In 10 seconds the medicinal properties are thoroughly mixed with water.

Thus, Hill's C. B. Q. Tablets act immediately, give relief without delay and begin checking Colds and La Grippe long before ordinary tablets, by actual test, are absorbed by the stomach juices. To prove this, subject other than C. B. Q. Tablets to the test, and observe that in most instances an hour or more is required for complete disintegration.

Demand C. B. Q. Tablets in red box bearing Mr. Hill's portrait and signature.
